DIRECTOR'S NOTE

Welcome to our production of "Marian, or The True Tale of Robin Hood: Teen Edition"! This adaptation gives voice to one of the most iconic figures of English folklore: Marian. While many know Robin Hood as the legendary outlaw who "robs from the rich and gives to the poor," this version invites us to explore Marian's perspective, uncovering the story from a new and empowering angle.

As we brought this production to life, we were reminded that the heart of the Robin Hood legend has always been about justice, equality, and challenging the status quo. But more importantly, it's about who gets to define justice—and whose voices are often left out of the story. Marian, in this retelling, is not just a love interest or a damsel in distress; she's a warrior, a strategist, and a leader in her own right.

This play centers on themes of courage, rebellion, and standing up for what's right, even when the odds are stacked against you. We hope you'll find inspiration in Marian's strength and resilience, as well as in the tight-knit community of outlaws and misfits who, together, fight for a fairer world.

Thank you for joining us on this adventure. May the spirit of Robin Hood and Marian inspire you to be bold, to be just, and to always stand up for what you believe in.

- Mackenzie Leland, Director

CREATIVE TEAM BIOS

Mackenzie Leland (Director) graduated from Capital University with a Bachelors in Theatre Arts and has since carved out a diverse career in the performing arts. She has toured as an actor and worked as a teaching artist at Columbus Children's Theater and taught musical theater in a program with the Reynoldsburg city school district. Recently, she played Jane Doe in Ride the Cyclone with the Contemporary Theatre of Ohio. Her favorite stage credits include Belle in Beauty and the Beast, Bonnie in Bonnie and Clyde, Mary in Mary Poppins, Emily Webb in Our Town, Ariel in The Little Mermaid, and Sarah Brown in Guys and Dolls. Currently, she is directing a musical production of Little Women with Curtain Players. In addition to her stage work, she serves as a substitute teacher in Westerville, Olentangy, and Hilliard city schools. She also has worked as a local princess character performer. Outside of theater, she enjoys thrifting, gardening, painting, eating Vietnamese food, playing with her dog, reading, and riding her bike. She looks forward to working with the students at Hilliard Bradley High School and helping them to develop a deep love of theater. Her hope is that she can facilitate for her students a sense of belonging and opportunity for artistic expression.

Olivia Rossi (Tech Director) is a graduate of Otterbein University with a degree in Theatre Design and Technology with a focus in scenery and props. Olivia loves crafting and all things art. Most of her time at school was spent in the scene shop or the painting studios. Before Otterbein, Olivia found her love for theatre in Bradley's own PAC. Olivia is very excited to be able to give back and expand the program that impacted her so much. #Techyeah

SHOUT OUTS!

Sophie Abate - Your energy, passion, and resilience make you an unforgettable Alanna. Balancing fierce warrior vibes with a clever wit, you breathe life into this powerful character. We could not be prouder of you! Love, Mom, Dad, & Emma

Callene ~ We are so proud of you and all your hard work. Best Wishes! Love Always, Mom, Dad, & Brayden

To my amazing niece, our Marian, Annabelle R: You've worked so hard, and your talent and dedication have truly shone through. Watching you bring this role to life fills me with so much pride - it's clear you were born to shine on stage. You are incredible in every way, and I know you'll captivate everyone this weekend. Break a leg, superstar! Love, your annoyingly-obsessed-with-you Aunt Sarah

Annabelle R, We are beyond proud of you for stepping into the role of Marian. We are in awe of your talent and your dedication to what you love. You truly are the bravest person we've ever met—your courage both on stage and in life inspires us every single day. Being on this journey with you as you chase your dreams has been incredible. Keep shining, our star! With all our love, Mom & Dad

Annabelle R, congrats on your role! Your hard work, commitment, and patience have been rewarded. I'm proud of you. I love you, Pak
